

Crystal Meth has become an epidemic but the Liberals under Paul Martin refuse to impose minimum sentences for crystal meth dealers.

Why are they so stubborn? They say minimum sentences do not work. The real problem is that the Liberal solution to crystal meth is not working. The Liberals have had 12 years to fix Canada's problems and they have FAILED.

ONE ANSWER

If criminals are in Jail they cannot commit crimes. That is a very, very simple concept but the Liberals simply do not understand it. Tell Paul Martin to get tough on crime by filling out this questionnaire.

Where do you think drug dealers belong?

Your Voice

Questionnaire:

1. Do you like the way Paul Martin spends your taxes?
Yes No Undecided
2. Are the Liberals doing enough to fight crime?
Yes No Undecided
3. Do you support homosexual sex marriage?
Yes No Undecided
4. Do you think more should be spent on the military?
Yes No Undecided

Mr. Mrs. Miss. Ms.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Postal Code: _____ Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Your Comments: _____
