

Manjot Hallen- LPCBC Nomination Chair Candidate

Manjot has been an active member of the Liberal Party of Canada for over 10 years. He has worked on several election campaigns, has been legal counsel to candidates, has worked on Leader's tour, Leadership campaigns and is currently serving as a member of the Green Light Committee. Manjot hopes to bring this wealth of experience to the role of LPCBC nomination chair.

Manjot believes that the LPCBC executive should reconnect with the voters in British Columbia by working with Riding Presidents to ensure that our Leader's message is delivered to the grass roots of our party.

It is time for us to reinvigorate and re-energize our party.

Manjot brings both experience and the relationships necessary to work effectively with Party's membership to ensure that our party continues to grow and strengthen in all regions of our province. Manjot wishes to continue the work of the current LPCBC executive and ensure success in the next election.
